

Singer Picks Most Sexiest Voice List

Sinatra Leads But the Crosbys Win on Points

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Put a Metropolitan opera star in Hollywood and what does she do?

She picks a "ten-most" list just like a movie queen. Blanche Thebom, a sexy "Carmen" herself, today picked the 10 sexiest male voices. Sinatra leads the pack but the Crosbys' win on points.

Here's her list in this order: 1. Frank Sinatra. This fellow sings with a "magnetic mist" quality, she says. 2. Ezio Pinza. He's got "mature and full-blown sex."

3. Robert Merrill of the Met. "Romantically exhilarating and carefree!" 4. Jean Sablon. "French — enough said."

5. Bing Crosby. This voice "snaps its finger at sex."

6. Gary Crosby. This famous son of a famous papa has a voice with the "quality of refreshing and impulsive sex." 7. Niccolò Rossi-Lemini of the San Francisco Opera Co. "Fiery and turbulent."

8. Fernando Lamas. MGM's new answer to Valentino, they hope. His voice has the sexiest South American appeal."

9. Russell Nype. "Call Me Madam" fame. This horn-rimmed, saddle-shoed refugee from a Yale weekend sings with "pleased emotion."

10. Arthur Godfrey. This voice is "boyish, the type you want to mother."

Absent from the list, without comment, was Miss Thebom's co-star in "The Great Caruso." Asked why she had omitted Mario Lanza, she said only:

"I just didn't put him on. Who can think of a better reason?"

Chop 11,875 From Federal Payroll List

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The number of civilians employed by the government dropped by 11,875 in September—the first decline in 15 months, the joint congressional watchdog committee on federal spending reported today.

Government employment totaled 2,495,519 at the end of September as compared with 2,507,394 a month earlier. Prior to that, the federal payroll had been mounting steadily since June, 1950, the month the Korean war started, the committee said.

Senator Byrd (D-Va.), committee chairman, said the reduction reflected two things—seasonal layoffs in such agencies as the interior and agriculture departments and application of the Ferguson amendment.

This amendment, sponsored by the Michigan Republican senator, was written into most of the appropriations bills for the current fiscal year. It calls for a 10 per cent cut in most federal salary funds.

Government salaries totaled $755,242,000 at the end of August as against $707,510,000 in July. This figure probably will climb still higher, despite the employment drop, because congress voted a salary boost of about 10 per cent for many federal workers just before it adjourned two weeks ago.

In September, slightly more than half of the civilian government employees worked for military departments.

REDS REJECT BUFFER PLAN

Dixon Housing Project Given 'Go Ahead'

Plans, Sites, Okayed; See Jan. 1 Start

Materials To Be No Handicap, Is Opinion Locally

The federal government has said "go ahead as fast as you can" to the Lee County Housing Authority in regard to construction of the first 80 units of low-rent public housing project. Housing Authority Chairman Frank C. Sproul said today.

Sproul said that the government has approved two sites for housing construction and that it is hoped that building can begin after the first of next year.

The sites approved are a plot east of Forrest avenue and north of Bradshaw street in the northeast section of the city and a plot located on the northeast corner of Ninth street and Lincoln avenue.

Plans Approved
On the northeast section of land, 76 units will be erected, and the remaining four units will be built on the Lincoln avenue plot.

All preliminary plans have been approved, according to Sproul. These include the sites and a city survey by Kincaid and Hutchinson, Inc. It has also been indicated that building plans will be approved by the federal public housing authority.

No Shortages
The government has not indicated any delays in construction of the housing projects because material shortages, Sproul said. Instead it is urging haste in completing plans and in beginning the actual construction phase of the project.

The units to be built will be frame with insulbrick covering the first story and special siding on upper sections.

Okay 160 Units
A total of 160 units have been approved for the Dixon area by the public housing authority. Of this number, 80 are slated for immediate construction and the remaining 80 are scheduled for building in the future.

Architects working with the housing authority on the project are John R. McLane, Dixon, and the J. Fletcher Lankton-John N. Ziegels firm of Peoria.

Seek Welch Approval
Members of the county housing authority are Sproul, Walter C. Knack, L. J. Welch and Charles Clemans, Dixon, and Everett Barnes, Amboy. Warren Badger is secretary.

The local housing authority has written to the state director for an opinion as to whether or not Welch can now serve on the committee because of his recent appointment as a Dixon city commissioner. An answer is expected shortly.

45 Lee County Men to Receive Draft Physicals
Forty-five Lee county men will take pre-induction physical examinations during November, according to Mrs. Carrie B. Root, clerk of the county Selective Service board.

The November call for inductions is for 13 men who will leave Nov. 20. The first group of 30 men for physicals will leave Nov. 6 while the second group of 15 men will leave Nov. 30.

Card-Carrying Reds Should Be Barred as Teachers--Dr. Conant

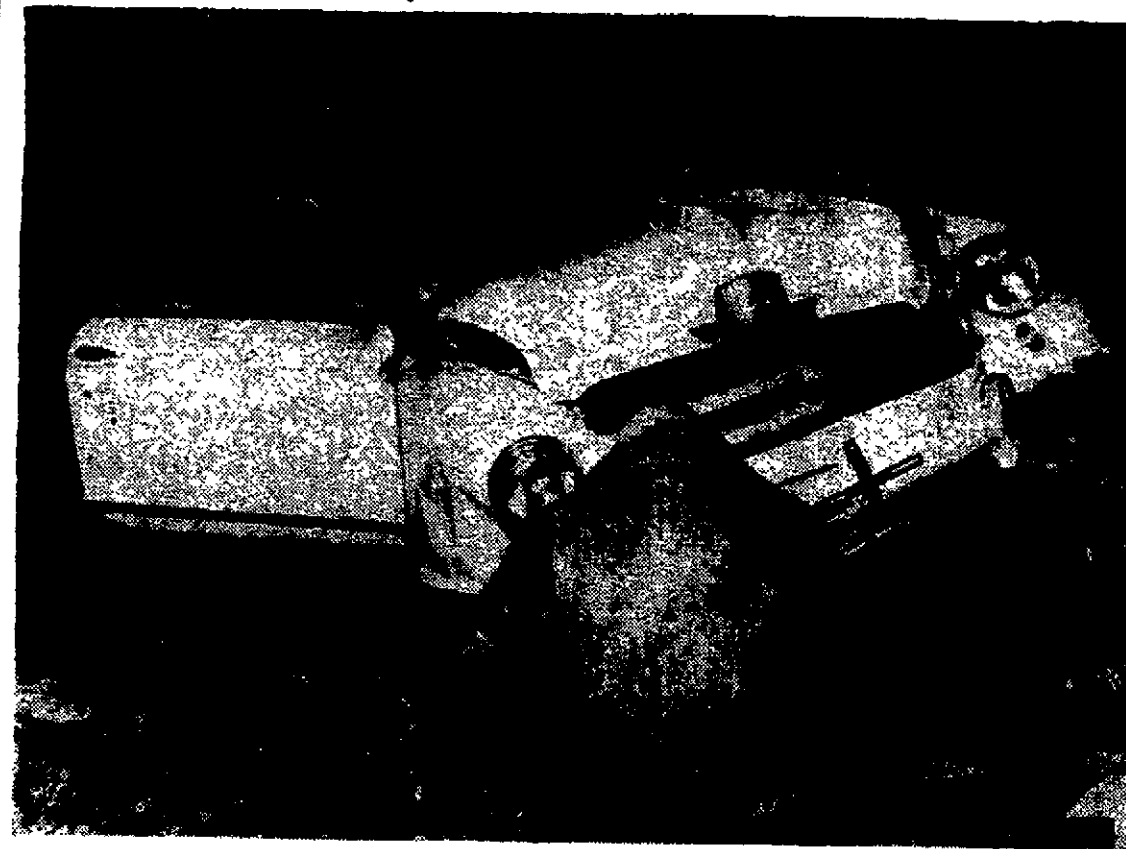

EUGENE, ORE.—(AP)—Dr. James B. Conant, president of Harvard university, said yesterday that card carrying Communists should be barred from the teaching profession.

"But with this single exception, which is the unique product of our century, I maintain that a professor's political views are of no concern to the university; nor are his activities within the law as a private citizen," Conant said.

Speaking at the University of Oregon's 75th anniversary convocation, Conant said freedom depends on the expression of varying points of view. Such expressions are not only essential to a university, but "reflect the essence of the American way of life," he declared.

Atom-Age Warship Revealed

VALLEJO, CALIF. (AP)—A destroyer described as "one of the first atomic-age vessels" was recommissioned at Mare Island yesterday.

The navy would not reveal details of the USS Jenkins but said it was one of the navy's first electronic ships and was loaded with every type of detection gear, rocket launchers, and other modern secret equipment.

Commander Charles F. McGivern, of Kenosha, Wis., skipper of the Jenkins, said it "represents the latest word in anti-submarine warfare."

Three-State Area Views 'Blue Flash'

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP)—An object that "lighted up the whole outdoors with a brilliant blue-green explosion" was reported last night over wide areas of New Mexico, Utah and Nevada.

Some observers described the object as an unusually large meteor.

Viewers here said the object left a trail of blue fire as it flashed across the skies from the east to the northwest and cast a bright orange and red light on the earth. John Evans, Tucson, said he saw the "brilliant blue-green flash" and then saw "little streaks of flame breaking off from the place where the big flash had been."

At Flagstaff, Deputy Sheriff Emil Richardson said a 100-mile radius was lighted with a "slow, reddish-blue flash."

Control towers throughout the southwest received reports of a "green flash" from airplane pilots. An observer at the University of Arizona said descriptions of the flash corresponded to the explosion of a particularly large meteor.

Kansas Driver Escapes Death In Auto Crash

A new car, just purchased at Janesville, Wis., was nearly demolished when it rolled over on the Gap Grove curve on Alt. 30 five miles northwest of Dixon last night. However, the owner, Scott Andrews, 50, Glade, Kan., escaped with scalp lacerations and bruises. He was reported in "good" condition today at KSB hospital.

The roof of his new car, a hard-top convertible was smashed level with the seat on the left side. Apparently the sedan rolled end over end after it plowed into a ditch bank on the south side of the road.

Andrews and Ray Kobler, Hays, Kan., were traveling in convoy after each had purchased a new car at Janesville. Andrews told officers that his car hit gravel on the shoulder when he was going around the curve headed west.

The auto went into a ditch on the south side of the pavement, smashed a pole bearing a school zone sign, plowed into the bank and then rolled over, landing on its wheels. Tracks showed the auto traveled about 150 feet after leaving the pavement. The school zone sign was found in a field about 25 feet beyond the wreck.

State Officers George Kiner and James Rosenow investigated.

The Ducks Have Arrived . . .

Reports from hunters in this area indicate that the cold snap in Canada and the North Central states have moved the ducks and geese out and that the main section of the great migration down the Mississippi flyway went through the Dixon area today.

Hunters along Green River report that commencing at six o'clock visibility became good enough to observe the high fliers and for several hours thereafter the sky was full of great flocks of ducks traveling south at high altitude.

Some stragglers stop and rest and feed but the main flight would not be apt to halt until reaching the Illinois river valley where there will still be plenty of open water. All of the ponds and marshes in this area are frozen at present but warmer weather would open them and there could still be some duck shooting.

U. S. Loses Five Ships, 29 Damaged

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Five U.S. ships have been sunk and 29 damaged by enemy mines, gunfire or bombs during the Korean campaign, the navy said yesterday.

The casualties reported from these actions included 102 killed, 31 missing in action and 282 wounded.

Four of the ships sunk were mine sweepers, the fifth an army tug. All sank after hitting enemy mines. Communist gunfire accounted for damage to 24 ships, including the cruisers Helena and St. Paul. The cruiser Rochester suffered very slight damage from a near miss by an aerial bomb during the Inchon landing, the report said.

Damage to the Helena, hit in two separate actions was described as slight and superficial, respectively.

The total of 34 vessels sunk and damaged is more than twice by the navy here. A spokesman said yesterday's announcement was made after a request was sent to the Far East command for a complete roundup of navy losses in the campaign.

Polono Improves After Car Crashes

Herman Hoffman, Polo, is in "good" condition today at KSB hospital where he was taken with back and chest injuries he received Thursday.

Hoffman was driving a tractor pulling a corn elevator on Rt. 26 south of Polo when his rig was struck by an automobile. The driver gave his name as "Clyde Overstuff," Dixon, but no such person could be located.

POLOAN INJURED

William Hare, 41, Rt. 3, Polo, is in "good" condition today at KSB hospital where he was taken after an accident at his farm home Friday afternoon. He lost part of one finger. Hare was admitted to the hospital at 5 p. m. Friday.

Mercury Hits Nine Above in Dixon Area

The mercury in thermometers in Dixon seems to be in a big hurry to get to the zero mark. It has made repeated attempts during the last few nights and last night almost made it. The Public Service company recorded a low of nine degrees above zero between 2 and 3 a. m. today.

The low for tonight is predicted in the 'teens, but defying weather forecasters, the mercury probably will drop lower in Dixon, the ice-box, apparently, of the North American continent.

Korean GI's Will Be Home By Christmas

Troops With Year In Line Promised Yuletide Furlough

TOKYO — (AP) — It's "Home by Christmas" for nearly every U. S. enlisted man who has been fighting on the Korean front since last Jan. 1.

That was the virtual promise in an announcement from headquarters of the boss man of the United Nations command, Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway.

Ridgway said he was making the announcement to clear up a little misinformation that all enlisted men "would be relieved from Korea prior to the onset of a second winter."

"It is entirely beyond the capabilities of the army," Ridgway's announcement said, "to relieve those 50,000 non-divisional personnel in Korea who are serving in army rear areas."

Must Wait
All divisional officers, unlike their men, also will have to wait for "qualified replacements" before they can go home.

Then Ridgway got down to what many a fighting man has been waiting to hear. He said:

"Except for a few critical specialists and special categories of personnel, all enlisted men who were serving with infantry divisions in Korea on Jan. 1 of this year will be out of the lines and on their way home by the end of November."

Not Specific
While the announcement did not specifically say Ridgway wanted all his front line enlisted men home by Christmas, it was understood at his headquarters that this was the plan.

If they are on their way home by the end of November, as the announcement said, they could make it. Ships sailing from Japan on the last day of November will have docked at some Pacific coast port by mid-December.

Ridgway said he wanted "all troops and their commanders fully informed of the true situation."

Red China's Premier Warns of More Blood Purges at Home

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai has warned that more blood purges are coming in his troubled homeland, which he bluntly calls "economically backward."

At the same time, he has pledged "strict economy" in government and an unrelenting campaign to "resist American aggression and aid in Korea."

Peiping radio only yesterday broadcast the long and detailed speech by Chou, which it said was made Oct. 23 at the national committee meeting of the political consultative conference in Peiping.

Apparently the Red leaders of China pondered awhile before releasing to the world a speech that told of a sea of trouble behind the bamboo curtain.

Tell of Troubles
The speech as monitored here by the Associated Press referred repeatedly to the troubles the Peiping regime was having with its "land reform" program.

Chou remarked that Chinese who resist Communist dictatorship "were reluctant to accept their extinction lying down."

Taft Cheered For Blast at 'Truman War'

Blames Democratic Stupidity for U.S. Predicament Today

CHICAGO — (AP) — Illinois Republicans made the rafters ring with cheers for Senator Taft (R-Ohio) last night at a $100-a-plate dinner in the International Amphitheater.

Taft told 4,300 diners and some 2,000 free balcony guests "the Republican party alone can promise a return to honesty and thrift and sound finance" in the federal government.

The Ohio senator is thus far the only major candidate who has declared himself a contender for the 1952 GOP presidential nomination.

The exclusively partisan audience which had paid $430,000 for the evening's speeches — some $400,000 of it net funds for state and national campaign chests — heard Taft blame "stupidity" of Democratic administrations for the Korean war, inflation, controls, big government spending and high taxes.

Calls It Stupid
"All of this emergency," he said, "was encouraged and built up by the stupidity of administration foreign policy after our boys had won the war."

"In my book, if there is one unforgivable result of any foreign policy, it is an unnecessary war. Such a war we are fighting today in Korea."

Taft said "Mr. Truman began the Korean war on his own initiative without the slightest authority from congress or the constitution. For two weeks after he started that war, he did not even consult congress. This is a Truman war. It is not necessary because it could have been avoided."

Withdraw Troops
Removal of U. S. troops from Korea three years ago, he said, was a foreign policy mistake primarily responsible for the war in Korea.

Taft told his audience that the Republicans must avoid a "Me-Too" campaign next year, and present their issues clearly and forcefully. If that is done, he said, "there is no doubt about the overwhelming election of a Republican president and a Republican congress in 1952."

Senator Dirksen (R-Ill.) gave the Ohioan a glowing introduction as a leader with "common sense" who is willing "to put on the armor of righteousness and fight for the salvation of America."

Can Win '52
Rep. Marguerite Stitt Church, Illinois' only woman congress member, told the dinner crowd the Republicans "can win in 1952, and when we win we will do more than bring another victory to ourselves; we will bring the hope of freedom and peace to the

Allies Offer To Neutralize Kaesong Area

Buffer Agreement Would Open Way for End of Shooting

By The Associated Press
United Nations armistice negotiators today suggested a compromise to the Communists on the dispute over Kaesong now blocking agreement on a Korean war cease-fire buffer zone.

The proposal was made at the Panmunjon conferences only a few hours after U. N. infantrymen turned back seven of eight Communist attacks on the Central and Western sectors of the front. In the Eighth assault the Reds gained some ground but later yielded it without a fight.

The Communists made no direct reply to the suggestion that Red held Kaesong be placed in a demilitarized (neutral) zone. Instead, they repeated their claims to the city, the only major South Korean town held by the enemy.

Not Turned Down
But a U. N. spokesman emphasized, the Communists "had not categorically turned down the proposal."

Both sides have demanded Kaesong—a natural gateway for invasion of Seoul 35 miles to the southeast—since armistice talks opened July 10. At that time the city was in no-man's-land.

Presumably the Communists will reply to the suggestion when the subcommittee meet at 11 a. m. Sunday (8 p. m. Saturday CST).

Would Pave Way
Accepting a compromise by the Communists would pave the way for final agreement on the cease-fire line. Negotiators already are in tentative agreement on a buffer zone generally following the battle line in the center and the east.

Once a buffer zone is established the U. N. and Communists must settle three other tough issues before the shooting will stop in the 17-month-old war. These are: A supervision of the truce, exchange of prisoners and recommendations to the governments

RENO, Nev. (AP)—U. S. Senator Pat McCarran, 75-year-old Nevada Democrat, is in quite serious condition as the result of a heart attack, his physician reported.

Dr. Stadther said last night McCarran suffered the attack early Thursday but is responding to treatment. His condition is not considered critical.

Stadther said the aging lawmaker will have to stay in the hospital three weeks or so and away from congressional duties a month after that.

Seminar Planned for Northern Illinois Builders and Realtors

AURORA—Builders, suppliers of building materials, and realtors from all parts of northern Illinois will assemble at Aurora Tuesday, Nov. 20, for a conference, seminar, and luncheon under the auspices of the Northern Illinois Home Builders Association. Announcement of the gathering, which will be held from 10:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. at the Leland Hotel "Sky Club," was made today by Edwin W. Chase, Lombard, Ill., director-chairman of the Home Builders Association.

Timely matters of interest to home-builders, realtors, and suppliers follow with the entire materials will be taken up by speakers, and discussions will follow with the entire audience participating.

Brown to Speak

James C. Downs, Jr., Chicago, president of the Real Estate Research corporation, and senior partner of Downs, Mohl & Company, one of the nation's largest management firms, will be one of the featured speakers. He will speak on "Building in the Months Ahead." Downs, who in 1951 was included in the book, "Today's Young Men" as one of the 70 outstanding young men in the nation, has appeared as guest speaker before business, banking, and professional groups throughout the United States and Canada.

Another noted speaker will be John M. Dickerman, assistant executive vice-president of the National Association of Home Builders of America, Washington, D. C., where he serves as legislative director for the Association.

Dickerman will speak on "Current Legislation As It Affects the Builder and the Contractor."

Tickets Available

Other speakers will be heard during the morning and afternoon sessions. The sessions will be open to all Northern Illinois builders, realtors, finance men, and building material suppliers who obtain their tickets in advance. Because the seating space at the "Sky Club" is limited, tickets will be sold on a "first come, first served" basis.

In Dixon and surrounding towns, tickets can be obtained from M. R. Evans, Aurora, member of the Northern Illinois Home Builders Association. Reservations can be made by phoning Evans at Aurora 6163. However, reservations must be picked up within one week's time.

Basement Corner Ideal Spot for Food Storage

One way to cut the grocery bill these days is to buy fruits and vegetables in quantities when they are plentiful and can them for future use. A basement corner near a window can be transformed at little cost into a neat, efficient storage.

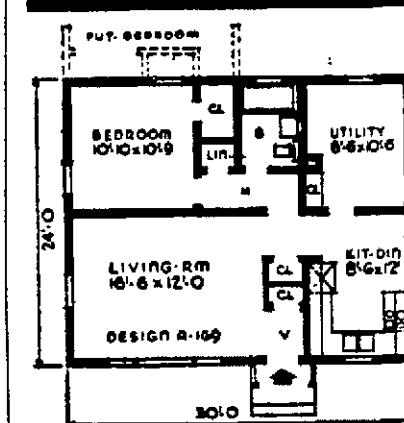

Practically all the materials needed for an average size room of this type are some two by four for framing members, about six sheets of four by eight insulating board, an inexpensive door and a few lengths of stovepipe equipped with a damper. The stovepipe is for installation as a fresh air vent in the window.

Insulating board, nailed to framing to form two walls of the room will retard entrance of heat and thus help keep the room at cool, uniform temperatures. The masonry foundation walls serving as one or two walls of storage need not be covered. It is advisable to finish off the ceiling of the storage with insulating board if the room above is heated.

If in doubt as to the exact procedure in starting the room, consult your local lumber dealer.

The most common type of windmill today is a steel sail windmill similar to that developed by Perry in 1883.

DIXON EVENING TELEGRAPH BUILDERS' PAGE

THE ANSELM was designed particularly for the couple. Its plan has just one bedroom but is arranged so another bedroom may be added without disturbing the exterior and using the present closets for a future hall.

If a second bedroom is to be added, the rear window becomes the door to the bedroom closet. A second window is added in the present bedroom.

The kitchen is located in front. Cabinets are arranged to leave dining space under the side window. There is no basement, the heating unit and laundry being located in a utility room adjoining the kitchen.

Closets are provided in each room and two for the hall. Included, too, are a double glazed picture window and covered front entrance. Frame construction is used throughout, with the first floor slab on a gravel fill, wide siding and asphalt shingles. Overall dimensions of the Anselm are 30 feet by 24 feet. Area is 720 square feet, while the cube totals 8,280 cubic feet. For further information about THE ANSELM, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

Interest Increases in Split Level Houses U. of I. Claims

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN — Increased popular interest in split-level houses is reflected by a special research report issued by the University of Illinois Small Homes Council on "Split-Level Houses Designed for Solid-Fuel Heat."

By separating the home into a ground-floor living level, a raised sleeping level, and a depressed utility level, advantages of both the one-story and the two-story house are obtained. Yet there is only a half flight of stairs from the living area to either of the other parts of the house.

Economical Storage The separation of levels allows the utility area to be placed in the least costly part of the house and offers economical storage of fuel. At the same time there is easy accessibility.

The living area, being at ground level, can be integrated with the outdoors. The sleeping area is separated from the rest of the house, and the raised level of bedroom windows gives greater privacy, quietness, and security.

Present Plans The booklet presents several standard section plans for the living, sleeping, and utility levels. These are combined in 14 suggested house plans, and any number of further plans can be developed from them.

The research was carried out in the University's department of architecture by Prof. Rudard A. Jones in a project sponsored by Bituminous Coal Research, Inc., the Anthracite Institute, and the American Coke and Coal Chemicals Institute. The booklet is 50 cents from the small homes.

Save Old Basket

Salvage a wastebasket or kitchen garbage receptacle whose bottom has worn through by inserting a cut-to-shape piece of tempered hardboard. Have it fit snugly so it won't fall out when the container is emptied.

Remedy Proposed For Sagging Door, Large or Small

A simple remedy for a sagging door on a farm building has been used successfully by many farmers. The cure may be applied to any size door, and it is reported to be permanent. Here's how the remedy is applied:

Remove the door and place it on a bench or saw horses.

Square up the sides, using a carpenter's square.

Place a panel of three-sixteenths inch tempered presdwood on the door and trim it to fit. Then bevel the edges slightly. Fasten the panel securely with nails, screws or bolts to either the inside or outside of the door.

Rehang the door and paint it. If the door is so "saggy" that it won't stay square while the presdwood is attached, keep it in shape temporarily by nailing a triangular piece of the masonite to the opposite side.

Records indicate that windmills existed prior to the 12th century.

Western Union Bans Money Order Betting

NEW YORK, (AP)—The Western Union Telegraph Company ordered a nationwide ban on use of its wires for sending money orders relating to bets.

The company action, announced yesterday, followed conviction Thursday of the firm and its manager at Bridgeton, N.J., on misdemeanor charges. The state contended the Western Union office there handled $300,000 a year in horse race bets.

A seven-man, five-woman jury returned a verdict of guilty against the company and the manager, Charles H. Frake, 40, for "accepting money orders addressed to alleged gamblers."

The ban on "wager messages," the company said, was issued to protect its employees from possible criminal prosecution. It will not affect sending of other money orders.

The firm, which plans to appeal the Bridgeton trial decision, issued a statement to employees saying:

"The (company) decision is based solely on the obvious necessity of protecting our employees from the possibility of being subjected to arrest and prosecution for the alleged violation of laws not clearly specified in statutes."

Swedes Reject Polish Charges

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, (AP)—Sweden has turned a chilly shoulder on Polish charges that the Swedes protect war criminals, brutally extort "confessions" from Polish citizens.

The Swedish foreign office rejected the charges in a note delivered to the Polish minister yesterday. The note was a reply to a Polish note of Oct. 17.

'Tally Ho' in Meat Market

LONDON, (AP) — A red fox wandered into London's working class district yesterday, but the Cockney residents—little versed in the hunt so dear to England's gentry—thought it was just another dog.

Someone finally recognized the bushy-tailed country visitor as it sauntered into a butcher store. Police killed the fox, after fruitlessly trying to capture it.

Save Rug Wear

An easy way to prevent the rug from wearing out under the piano pedals is to make a nicely shaped pad, with beveled edges, from a piece of tempered hardboard, one-quarter inch thick.

Round pieces, cut out with a jig or scroll saw, may be used effectively under piano legs or other heavy furniture to protect rugs; they will even up chairs or other pieces which must stand partly on the rug and partly on the floor.

Build a Gym

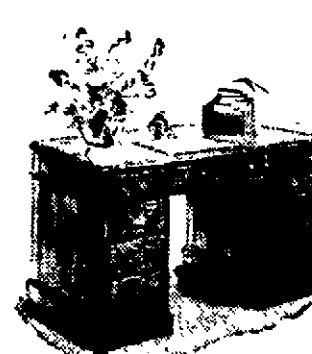

Building a small gymnasium in the basement is simple and inexpensive. If you want to separate it from the rest of the space, just put up some two by fours and nail on enough panels of quarter-inch tempered presdwood to make the walls. Put in a set of pulleys, a bar between the door frames, a few Indian clubs and some dumbbells—ad there's your home gym.

Absorb Pressure

Home workshop experts, here's a way to prevent metal vise jaw damage to wood. Shape two pieces of tempered hardboard, each one-eighth inch thick to resemble pairs of trousers. Simply hang them on the threads of the vise, where they will be immediately available to protect the wood from being marked while it is in the vise jaws.

To make a quick Roquefort cheese dressing, crumble a third of a cup of the cheese into a cup and a half of French dressing. Shake well before pouring over the salad greens.

Paneling Gives Smart Touch

This attractive living room in the home of Don Gasner, Milwaukee home builder, demonstrates possibilities for unusual effects which can be achieved with hardwood plywood wall paneling. In contrast to the white Roman brick of the fireplace wall, the darker paneling lends warmth and charm to the interior which is tastefully decorated in Chinese-modern motif. Easy to apply and maintain, plywood paneling derives its strength and permanence from crossbanding of the plies which makes it resistant to warping, cracking or splitting.

Assistant Attorney General Will Undergo Further Check On His Income Tax Returns

WASHINGTON, (AP)—House investigators of scandals in the federal tax gathering service aren't through questioning Theron Lamar Caudle, assistant attorney general in charge of tax prosecutions.

Also, they want a look at his income tax returns.

Just what they expect to learn, or may have learned, has not seeped out of the series of closed-door sessions the investigating ways and means subcommittee has been having with Caudle.

After a three-hour meeting late yesterday, Chairman King (D-Calif.) told reporters:

"The Caudle matter is not closed. He will be brought back for further questioning."

Answered All Questions Caudle told reporters: "I answered all the committee's questions, and I have no comment."

The committee's request for a look at Caudle's income tax returns came earlier in the day.

Caudle's name was brought before the committee this week when he confirmed reports that he made a trip to Italy last summer as guest of two wine merchants checking on a back account they had there. Caudle said he went along as a friend and advisor of the two merchants.

Attorney General McGrath has said he knew about the trip, that he thought Caudle did nothing "improper," but he probably would have advised against it had he known some more about it.

Call For Ouster Rep. Curtis (R-Mo.) called yesterday for the ouster of both Caudle and McGrath. Curtis said in a statement that McGrath should be fired for condoning the trip.

Caudle's name also has come up, along with that of Jess Larson, head of the government's General Services Administration, in connection with some oil lease speculation. Both men have denied any wrongdoing. Larson said he had done "nothing illegal" in investing in oil, and had lost money anyway.

Caudle said he disposed of his holdings when he learned his name was being used to promote the oil venture.

They Resign The committee's investigation, begun last summer to check on reports of widespread misdoings among collectors of internal revenue, has resulted in resignation, dismissal or suspension of nearly a score of revenue agents. Two collectors are under indictment, and President Truman has announced he will recommend to congress that collectors—now political appointees—be brought under civil service.

The investigation branched out, though interest in the justice department's handling of tax cases, to the attorney general's office. King has said his committee wants to know why "so many" tax fraud cases were dropped at "higher levels" after recommendations for prosecutions.

Truman Signs Law Hitting at Dope Peddlers

WASHINGTON, (AP) — President Truman has signed legislation tightening the penalties for violations of narcotics laws, and set up a government committee to study other ways of controlling the drug problem.

Among other things, the new law sets a minimum prison term of two years, and a maximum of five, for the first violation of the narcotics and marijuana laws.

It also bars suspended sentences for any offense after the first, and increases prison sentences to a maximum of 20 years for third and subsequent offenses. A maximum fine of $2,000 is provided for all offenses.

In signing the bill yesterday, Mr. Truman said it would make federal efforts to curb the illicit narcotics traffic "far more effective" by making it impossible for hardened offenders to avoid jail terms.

The old law provided no minimum sentences, leaving penalties up to trial judges.

Ike Says Washington Talks To Be 'Strictly Military'; Truman May Pop '52 Question

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Although Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's return to Washington may bring no public political announcement, Republicans plugging for him to become their party's 1952 presidential candidate apparently hoped today to gain some private assurances of his possible availability.

Eisenhower himself has put it strictly up to President Truman whether any political discussions may pass between the two men in two days of conferences next week. The general is due at Fort Knox, Ky., about noon today. He'll spend the weekend there with his family and come on to Washington Monday.

Strictly Military

Before taking off from Paris yesterday, the general told reporters he was making the trip, under presidential orders, to talk over "strictly military" affairs with Truman and other national leaders.

When reporters asked him if any political subjects would come up in talks with the president, the general replied with a grin: "Not from my point of view." This apparently indicated that Eisenhower has no intention during his hurry-up visit of making any public political statement or of permitting his well-wishers to put him on the record about his intentions.

Can Talk Socially

Eisenhower backers were quick to point out, however, that the general didn't exclude discussion of politics with friends who might see him socially in periods between his round of White House and Pentagon conferences.

One who has announced he plans to see the general is Senator Duff (R-Pa.). He plans to wait until Monday night or Tuesday to call on the five-star visitor.

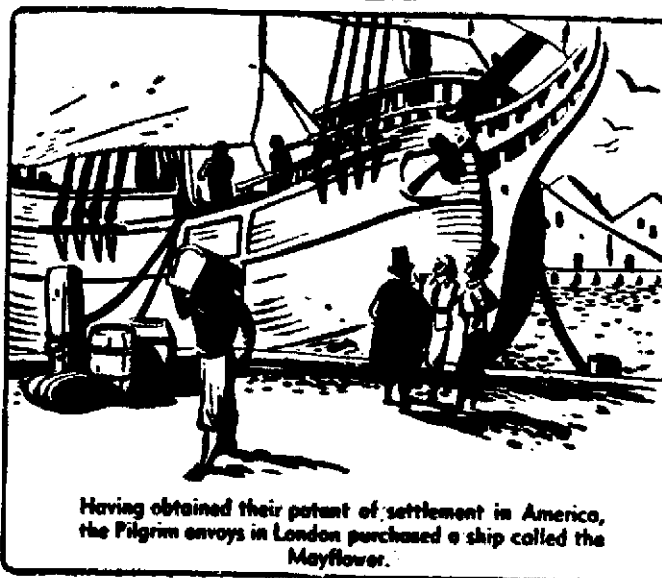

Will Discuss Future

Eisenhower spoke for himself alone when he said his talks with President Truman will involve only "strictly military" matters. A close friend of Truman, who asked not to be quoted by name, told reporters he would be surprised if the conversation doesn't turn in time to the length of Eisenhower's future service as commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) forces.

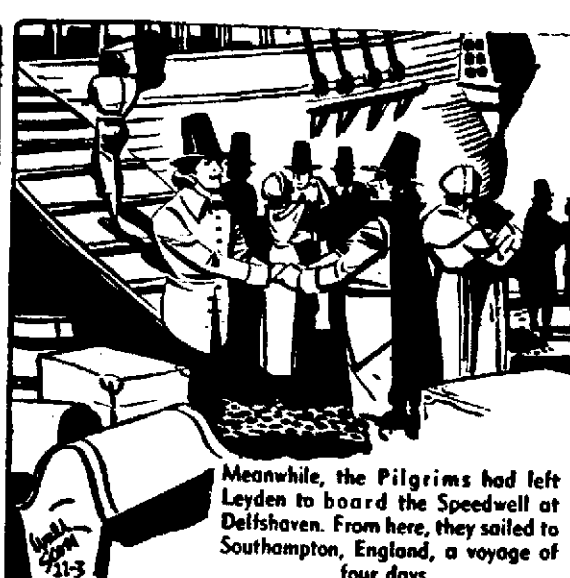

The general has indicated he is loathe to make any statement even remotely political while he is in uniform. The president's friend—who doesn't believe Truman will run again—said he thinks "the boss" will want to know Eisenhower's attitude toward the draft movement being fanned for him by Duff, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York and others.

It would be natural, Truman's friend said, for the two men to talk about the future of the presidency. That they might reach an understanding on each other's future plans is regarded as possible by many politicians.

Predict Heavy Snows and Cold For November

WASHINGTON —(AP)— November figures in the weather bureau's book to be a little colder than normal for much of the country.

A long-range forecast, issued today, said:

"The weather bureau's 30-day outlook for November calls for temperatures to average colder than seasonal normals over most of the eastern two-thirds of the nation except for coastal areas along the Gulf of Mexico and Atlantic Seaboard where near normal temperatures are indicated. Recurrent surges of cold air from Canada are expected to bring greatest departures from normal in the Central Plains and Great Lakes region. West of the Continental Divide temperatures are expected to average slightly above seasonal normals.

"Precipitation amounts are expected to exceed normal east of the Mississippi and along the Gulf Coast with northernmost areas getting more snow than usual for November. Above normal precipitation is also predicted for the Pacific Northwest and western portions of the Northern Plains. Elsewhere subnormal or near normal amounts are indicated."

Cold Weekend Is in Prospect; South Has Snow, Record Lows

It looks like a cold weekend over most of the nation with not much relief in sight from an early touch of wintry weather.

The unseasonable cold and snow fanned out across the country, even dipping into the southland. Record low temperatures were reported in many areas in the season's most severe cold.

Only the extreme southeast and southwest desert regions escaped the brisk breezes, snow and rain.

Cold for Football

The day's forecast of continued cold—and snow and rain in some sections—meant heavy wraps for the thousands planning on attending football games.

The central and mountain states were the frigid areas yesterday with sub-zero temperatures from the Rockies to Lake Superior.

Snow fell over wide sections of the South from Alabama to New Mexico. The early season snowfalls hit most of Arkansas, with falls measuring up to six inches. Old timers said it was the first time they had seen snow on green leaves.

Earliest on Record

Light snow and flurries pelted areas in Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and most of Kentucky. The fall at Nashville measured two inches. The snow along the northern rim of Louisiana and Mississippi was the earliest on record.

No more snow appeared in prospect for the southland but forecasters said there was no immediate end of the chilly blasts.

Below Freezing

It was below freezing in many southern cities early today—Memphis 24; Nashville 20; Birmingham 28; Chattanooga 30, and Atlanta and Montgomery, Ala., 31. At the same time it was 75 in Miami.

But cooler weather was slated for parts of Southern Florida over the weekend. And freezing weather was forecast for Northern Florida Sunday morning, which would threaten tender truck crops.

A killing freeze also was predicted for the winter vegetable area around Laredo, Tex., Sunday.

Blame Deaths

At least seven deaths in Texas were attributed to the sub-freezing cold. Motor travel in Texas and in many other states was hazardous because of icy highways.

A warm wind pushed into Denver last night, sending temperatures to 44 above as compared to a frigid six below earlier yesterday.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The divine nature is perfection; and to be nearest to the divine nature is to be nearest to perfection. —Xenophon.

The Pilgrim Heritage

Across the broad sea they sailed, confident, courageous, and adventuresome. Pioneers, they were, sufferers of privations, and endurers of extreme hardships. For sixty-seven days the sturdy and picturesque Mayflower was their abode as it rode the proud waves through storm and through calm toward the land of the setting sun. Somewhere in the New World they would find their future home.

The Pilgrims of 1620 were no ordinary men. In their English homeland they had suffered much opposition and persecution because of their religious convictions. In their struggle for security they chose the way to freedom. To obtain this liberty and the God-given privilege of serving Divinity as they chose, they first crossed the channel to Holland, where they lived for about twelve years. From there they sailed to discover the new land beyond the horizon, a virgin soil, where they could establish a new government and build homes of their own, unmolested by cruel tyrant or a persecuting church.

On the bleak New England coast they landed in December, 1620. During that first winter this brave little band lost half its number through sickness and exposure. Such was only part of the cost of establishing the first permanent English settlement in America north of the Potomac. Today, sheltered under a protecting canopy and washed by the waters of the broad Atlantic, lies a rock that has been visited by hundreds of thousands of loyal Americans through the years. Tradition tells us that on this spot, and perhaps upon this very stone, the Pilgrims first set foot at Plymouth. This large rock is perhaps more than anything else a national symbol of a faith in individual religious freedom and national solidarity. It has been featured in song and celebrated in countless pieces of literature.

We of today are proud of those who pioneered in this great land of ours. They made mistakes of course; so do we all. The principles of liberty as we know them today were then in the making. The Pilgrims wanted more than anything else a country where they could enjoy full religious freedom.

The historical organizations at Plymouth are doing a patriotic service in preserving and restoring the historic houses of more than three centuries ago. There will also be even a replica of the Mayflower, we understand, in the not-too-distant future. Then visitors will be able to see reenacted before their very eyes life as it was carried on in the old "Plymouth Plantation" of long ago.

Overtone of Envy?

When Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip were in Windsor, Ont., the other day, Governor Williams of Michigan slipped across the Detroit river to greet them. As a token, he gave the prince a tie.

"This will bring you luck," said the governor, who wears one like it.

Hereupon the mayor of Windsor piped up: "He doesn't need any luck. He's got HIS job for life."

The admiring mayor made it clear he knew he was in the presence of a man who had entered the politician's Garden of Eden: that narrow zone where public jobs go on forever without painful need of re-election.

Men's Nature Differs From Women's So Be Tolerant

Just glance at a magazine article called "The Chief Fault of Husbands."

If we women are at all observant we don't have to be told the answer. We know what the chief fault of husbands is. It's being men.

Most of the exasperating things about husbands can be blamed on the fact that men don't think like women, don't react to every-day circumstances like women, don't think the same things are important that women do, and are less reluctant than women to talk things out.

Write down 10 faults of your husband—the kind of annoying traits that you think make him hard to live with. Chances are that at least nine of them are faults that most men possess, or rather habits and characteristics that women regard as faults because they don't fit with a woman's way of thinking and acting.

The Same Is True of Women

Taking a look in the other direction, we could say with equal truth that the greatest fault of wives is in being women—and because they are women, not being able to understand the masculine heart and mind.

Since that is the chief fault of both husbands and wives—why don't they relax a little and act a little more tolerant toward each other?

A woman can't always understand a man or condone his behavior—and vice versa—but least both can be tolerant.

If they are they will come to see that most of a wife's feelings, or what her husband regards as her failings, are actually feminine characteristics and most of a husband's weaknesses, or what his wife regards as his weaknesses, are actually masculine characteristics.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Why Diseases Attack Some and Not Others Is One of the World's Great Mysteries

Written for NEA Service
By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.

The first and most interesting letter today is a real $64 question. "I know that shingles is a skin eruption following the course of a nerve. What causes the shingles to appear, or rather, what causes the disturbance with the nerve?"

M. E. R. A—The immediate cause of shingles or Herpes zoster is a virus, which is a small living organism too small to see under the ordinary microscope. Why this virus attacks some people and causes shingles and not others, no one really knows. In fact, why many of the diseases attack some and not others is one of the great mysteries of the world.

Q—"When you have your teeth pulled out with nerve block, can you feel them coming out? My doctor has advised this and my suave gangster roles. I go to a racetrack and pretty soon a mugg starts slipping me solid gold tips. I went to Chicago once and the boys sent me a guide for a Cook's tour of the city. You know where he took me first? To a garage where seven guys had their heads blown off.

"Look," he says to me. "You can still see the bloodstains."

Mickey was between wives—Ava Gardner and Betty Jane Rose—at the time.

"But, look, it's no big serious thing," Diana leveled. "This is nothing to get excited about. I'm sure Mickey's not in love with me and that I'm not in love with him."

NOT ON TV

So Hollywood isn't watching the TV screens, huh?

UI producer Leonard Goldstein let it out of the bag that the movie-brain lads are right there in the front parlor. But it's not for entertainment, by golly.

They're out to decide what they can give moviegoers that they won't get by turning a knob.

"At UI we're doing family pictures, fairy tales, comedies and westerns. No more crime melodramas, down-beat problem pictures, mysteries or cops and robbers. You can get that free on TV every five minutes."

friends tell me there is positively no feeling."

H. L. A—It is correct that there is no feeling from the removal of teeth in the area supplied by the nerve which is blocked. This is a common method of removing teeth when all the circumstances indicate it.

Q—"My baby is to have an eye operation because some of the muscles in her eyes are paralyzed. Could you discuss this?"

A—The transplantation of muscles of the eye so that good muscles will take over some of the functions of poor ones is highly effective in many instances. It is commonly done early in life since this may preserve some of the normal vision which might otherwise be lost.

Q—"What happens to a person's mental faculties when he gets 'dead drunk'? Does such a person know what he is doing or saying? When his head has cleared, can he remember what has been done or said?"

W. J. T. A—Alcohol is classed as an anesthetic, and drinking enough will cause a person to become entirely unconscious. Under such circumstances, the person will not know what he is doing or saying and frequently cannot recollect afterwards what occurred during the time of being "dead drunk."

Q—"Is there any relief or cure for cramps in the legs which occur at night?"

W. E. J. A—This is an extremely common condition which is sometimes related to poor circulation, sometimes to pregnancy, and sometimes to causes which are more obscure. Some people get a certain amount of relief by walking around for a short time.

Apparently a number of persons with this difficulty do not have enough calcium in their systems and seem to drink little if any milk. In almost all severe cases of cramps in the legs, an effort should be made to determine the exact cause.

Q—"I have a broken jaw, and was wondering if I could box as an amateur fighter. Some of my friends, however, said it would be unwise for me to do so because my jaw would break easily."

R. E. A—Many of us would be quite satisfied with one broken jaw and would not go out of our way to get another. In an individual case such as yours, the answer can only be given after an X-ray of the jaw determining whether it is thick enough to be likely to withstand an ordinary blow from boxing. There would, of course, be some risk at best.

Q—"I have heard a great deal about black cherries being good for rheumatoid arthritis. Do you think this is true?"

Mrs. A. W. K. A—I doubt it very much.

A—The United States. The last contest took place in 1937, when the American boat Ranger beat the British Endeavor II, and thus the cup remains in this country.

Q—Was Composer Paul Hindemith born in the United States?

A—No. He was born in Germany in 1895.

Q—How many impeachments have occurred in United States history?

A—There have been only 12 impeachments. The most recent one was that of Judge Ritter who tried and convicted in 1936.

Q—Did the American Indians raise corn other than the white or yellow varieties?

A—Indians preferred the red, blue, brown, pink, purple, spotted and variegated. The white man ruled out all but white and yellow, though occasionally ancestral colors creep in.

Q—Is there a difference between agnosticism and atheism?

A—Agnosticism is simply a declaration of not having found a basis for belief. Atheism is an avowed disbelief.

"You can't swindle an honest man," all the confidence men will tell you. The easiest man to swindle is the greedy fellow who's out for a profit that doesn't belong to him. The honest man will pass that profit up, but the greedy fellow will reach for it every time.

Is this a sermon or a bridge column? Today it happens to be a little of both.

West opened the queen of spades in the hand shown today, and South won in his own hand with the ace. He counted six clubs, two spades, and a heart no matter what happened—so he was always sure of his game. Meanwhile, there was no harm in taking a look at the diamonds.

So declarer led the jack of diamonds at the second trick. West naturally played low, and so did dummy. East won with the ace of diamonds.

East returned a spade to dummy's king, and South got back to his own hand with the nine of clubs in order to lead the ten of diamonds. West again played low, and so did dummy.

Thereupon East produced the queen of diamonds to win the trick. He then led a third round of spades, allowing his partner to win three tricks in that suit. Three spades and two diamonds were enough to set the contract.

East's little swindle was very neat, of course, but nothing to rave about. It worked only because South was too greedy to be satisfied with a sure ten tricks and the rubber. A sensible declarer would have taken his 630 points and would not have risked them for the sake of an uncertain 3 or 600 points more.

Q—With North-South vulnerable, the bidding has been: West North East South 1 Heart 1 Spade Pass ? You, South, hold: Spades J-5, Hearts K-J-3-2, Diamonds A-Q-5, Clubs Q-J-5-4. What do you do?

A—Bid two no-trump. You should have a fine play for game if your partner has a sound overall. Nevertheless, you bid only two (not three) no-trump just in case your partner has a really shabby overall and wants to pass under game.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is the same as in the previous question. You, South, hold: Spades Q-7-4, Hearts 3-2, Diamonds 8-7-5, Clubs A-K-10-9-4. What do you do?

Red Arms Cache Explodes, Seven Italians Killed

SESTRI LEVANTE, Italy, (AP)—The death toll from last night's disastrous explosion of a secret Communist arms cache rose to seven today as firemen continued to dig through the debris. At least seven others were injured.

Preliminary estimates said the blast which laid waste to an entire street in this village near Genoa caused some 15,000,000 lire (about $25,000 damage.)

Police disclosed they had taken seven men—all of them Communists—into custody for questioning. The arrests were made after authorities discovered in the wreckage of one house two rifles, one machinegun and 350 machine gun bullets.

What's Right?

You wonder how old a newly made acquaintance is.

WRONG: Ask her how old she is.

RIGHT: Don't ask personal questions. If she doesn't mind telling her age, she'll probably mention it of her own accord some day.

NEWSPAPER QUILTS

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK—(AP)—Oestsjællands Avis, a provincial daily newspaper of conservative leanings, folded today, 10 months after observing its 100th anniversary.

The paper followed a long list of other provincial papers into limbo. They have been harassed by economic difficulties stemming from the staggering cost of newsprint.

PETER EDSON'S WASHINGTON NEWS NOTEBOOK

U. S. Got Bargain by Settling British Firm's Patent-Infringement Charges

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Uncle Sam has finally ended up giving the British firm, Power Jets, Ltd., $3,200,000 as a settlement on jet engine patent-infringement charges. The original demand was for $10,000,000. The English company claimed that every jet engine the Air Force and Navy purchased infringed on its patents. U. S. experts who handled the case admitted that the claim was fairly accurate.

A Dept. of Defense spokesman thinks that the U. S. ended up with a good bargain, however. The deal clears up back claims, gives the U. S. the right to use all patents pending, and all that might be filed by the company during the next three years.

Recreation for the Gals

Upset by the acute shortage of stenographers and typists in Washington, Rep. Roy W. Wier (D., Minn.) has introduced a bill which would create more recreation for the gals who come from all over the country to work for Uncle Sam. He would have the government pattern this program after those of various big firms which sponsor dances, ping-pong tournaments, hay rides, beauty contests and corn roasts.

Women Are Outnumbered

There are now only 35 registered women lobbyists out of almost 1,500 persons who have signed up as such according to law. Most of the gals are working for educational or welfare groups, voluntarily or for a small salary.

Highest-paid female lobbyist is Mrs. Leone Baxter Whitaker, working for the American Medical Association. Her salary and expenses are reported as $50,000 a year. Next to her in size of income is Mrs. Margaret K. Taylor, education director for the National Milk Producers Association, with a salary of $9,000 a year.

Sub-Contract Troubles

Air Force is having unique difficulty with its policy of requiring certain of its prime contractors to sub-contract certain items to what it calls small businesses. It has defined small business as any firm which employs less than 500 persons. The gimmick is that as soon as many of these small firms accept a sub-contract, they quickly expand it to more than 500 employees.

This situation is happening most frequently at the Lockland Jet engine plant near Cincinnati which is run by General Electric under what is known as the Lockland Ulan. The plan calls for 100 per cent sub-contracting with GE merely assembling the parts of the jet engines.

O. Henry Twist

Merle Thorpe, former publisher of Nation's Business, has a camping trip story with an O. Henry ending. Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe now live in Hollin Hall, a pre-revolutionary mansion built by George Mason, one of the original signers of the Constitution. The house is in Alexandria, just across the Potomac from Washington, and it's one of the capital area showplaces. But on vacation, the Thorpes used to like to rough it.

They were in Montana one summer, traveling by horseback with guide and cook. They had just made camp one evening when four strangers rode up. One of them, who turned out to be the guide, was clean and neat. But the other three were bearded and their clothes were very dirty. They asked if they could make camp near the Thorpes and then invited themselves to supper.

There was fish. The men ate hearty and the oldest of the trio said it was the best fish he had ever eaten. Then he announced, "I don't get to do this very often, but I insist on wiping the dishes." Which he did. The three bearded toughs were John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and two of his sons.

Quirks of Justice

Latest report by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI head, reveals that a person arrested for drunken driving stands a greater chance of being convicted than a person charged with any other crime. This is based on nationwide statistics. But ironically enough, the report states, "Were he to kill another and be charged with manslaughter, however, the chances of his going free are greater than if he were charged with any other crime."

Can Go to Japan

Families of Air Force officers are now being permitted to go to Japan in small numbers. This was halted as soon as the Korean fighting broke out last year. Reasons are that recent rotation of AF personnel has made more housing available, and there is room on ships going to Japan, with the emergency supply problem to Korea pretty well licked.

Relax Bird Restrictions

Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, U. S. Surgeon General, is about to relax rigid restrictions on the importation of parrots, parakeets, love birds and other members of the psittacine bird family. Reason for restrictions in the first place was the danger of "parrot fever," a disease similar to pneumonia.

Effectiveness of the new "wonder" drugs in treating the disease makes it no longer a public health menace. Among other things, such birds less than eight months old can now be imported.

New Plane-Landing Method

Pentagon experts are studying reports that the British are experimenting with a method of landing airplanes on rubber mats. Plane flies low over a mat at its minimum speed and it is caught in rubber cables which drop it easily to the rubber mat. Idea is to save space and weight of landing gear. It has been tried successfully.

Army Cuts Red Tape

As a result of "Operation Red Tap" instituted by Secretary of Army Frank Pace and Gen. Collins, it is claimed that all unnecessary paperwork will soon be eliminated in the Army. Pace claims to have already cut out 270,000 unnecessary daily reports a year as a result of the drive. He says he hopes to be able to reduce to three times a week the time-honored morning report which had to be made out by every unit in the Army every morning. It's the biggest chronic pain-in-the-neck to those who have to work on it.

Is Frozen Orange Juice Fresh?

Perhaps you've wondered as I have if the frozen orange juice which has been on the market some time now, is just as nutritious as fresh. The American Medical Association in a recent publication says yes, that it can be. This group says 98 per cent of the vitamin C can be retained in frozen concentrated juice if proper methods of processing and handling are used.

Fresh oranges are picked at the right stage and the processing is handled quite well in most cases. The Medical Association goes on to say that most of the vitamin C loss is usually due to improper handling in the home. If the juice is allowed to stand in open containers at room temperature, appreciable losses will occur.

However, if left-over juice is covered well and stored in a refrigerator at 40 degree temperature, there is little loss of vitamin C.

How to Relieve Tension

At our recent conference of Illinois home advisers, a group of specialists presented a panel on the above topic. It is probably a necessary factor in all family relationships that we know about tensions and rid ourselves of them or avoid gaining them.

The panel brought out that we need to keep ourselves well physically, eat the right foods every day, get sufficient rest and practice rules of safety.

Also that we live in one-day compartments and that we do something physical to relieve strain and stress, like throwing a bowling ball, washing windows or a wall, working in a garden, etc.

The panel also pointed out that you must feel a part of something significant—thus you have a sense of importance and forget about self. And at the same time face the situation of life today and that this pace is normal. They questioned whether perhaps we were not educated wrongly in that we are constantly on the look out for a Utopia tomorrow, which never really comes.

Because Advertising

- ... brings you news about better products you need
- ... tells you where to get what you want when you want it
- ... makes lower prices possible through mass production and mass selling

DIXON EVENING TELEGRAPH

Mulroy, Governor's Secretary, Resigns Because of 'Ill Health'

SPRINGFIELD, (AP)—James W. Mulroy, executive secretary to Gov. Stevenson and one of his top advisors, yesterday announced he was resigning immediately due to ill health.

In a letter to Gov. Stevenson, Mulroy said if he continued in his $10,800 a year job his health might suffer a "definite impairment."

Stevenson accepted the resignation "with regrets" and said he had no present plans for a successor.

Resigned Since August

Mulroy's resignation has been rumored since disclosures last August that he owned a small amount of stock in Chicago Downs, a profitable harness racing venture. Nine Illinois legislators or members of their families were listed among stockholders.

Mulroy made no announcement about his future plans. Mulroy's letter said: "You will recall that for reasons of health I have been sent to the hospital five times since March of 1948. My doctor informs me that I should take further time off in the very near future."

Once Newsman

Mulroy, before his association with Stevenson was promotion manager and then managing editor of the old Chicago Sun. He formerly worked for the Chicago Daily News and won a Pulitzer prize for reporting.

Speculation over Mulroy's successor included: Carl McGowan, Don Hyndman, William Blair, Richard Nelson and Lawrence E. Irwin, all on Stevenson's staff, and J. Edward Day, state insurance director and a former Stevenson aide.

Marine Pfc. Charles Baird, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Baird, Rt. 2, Dixon, arrived this morning by bus from San Francisco after flying from Tokyo.

Pfc. Baird was rushed home from the front in Korea because of the serious injury to his father who fell off a combine. Charles reported today that his father is "better."

Baird has been in Korea for about a month and a half serving with the first battalion of the Seventh Marines. He was in a weapons company in the lines but declined to mention the location because of military security.

Charles arrived in Dixon at 8 a.m. He enlisted in the marines March 1 and took training at San Diego, Calif. He is a graduate of Amboy high school.

Fazzi Store Loss To Be In Thousands

E. L. Fazzi, owner of Fazzi's Television Sales and Service today is undertaking the depressing job of figuring up his loss in yesterday's fire of mysterious origin which swept through the second floor storeroom at the Fazzi store on North Galena avenue.

Fazzi said, "I want to thank all my neighbors and everyone else who helped haul equipment out of the store yesterday. If it hadn't been for them the loss would have been much greater."

In addition to damage to the building, equipment lost includes six or seven television sets, two hair dryers, two washing machines, several table model radios, portable radios and car radios, tables and electric fans.

Princess, Duke Spend Two Days In Snowy Quebec

STE. AGATHE DES MONTS, Que., (AP)—Princess Elizabeth and her husband awoke today to a snowy Laurentian wonderland to begin a two-day holiday before concluding their North American tour.

But unless the snow falls build up to more substantial proportions, there was little chance of skiing. So the royal couple likely will hike through the beautiful scenic trails, snap pictures and come home to a blazing log fire in a comfortable hearth.

Winter's first serious snowfall arrived with the royal tourists at Montreal's Dorval airport, 50 miles away, yesterday afternoon and followed them to their retreat.

Throughout the route to this famous skiing resort thousands of persons clad in parkas and snow-boots stood in the wintry bluster to cheer.

The Princess gave orders that the royal car was to slow down at each crossroads and village where crowds stood and waved flags, bandanas and even bright lumberjack's hankies. She waved back from the comfortable recesses of her big limousine where she was bundled in her long mink coat and covered with an electrically-heated blanket.

The 50-mile drive occupied 2½ hours and ended in a winding, hilly by-way that led lofty evergreens to a Norwegian-type camp.

Their host is J. W. McConnell, Montreal publisher and financier.

Texas Oil Heir to Wed Belly Dancer

EL PASO, TEX., (AP)—Shepard (Abdullah) King III, with a Mexican quickie divorce in his pocket, made big plans today to wed his beloved belly dancer.

King got rid of his wife, curvaceous Gloria, at a 30-minute session yesterday in a civil court at Juarez, Mexico, just across the Rio Grande.

Next it's off to the land of the Nile and the arms of Egyptian torso tosser Samal Gamal for the sandy-haired Houston oil heir.

Until he leaves in a couple of weeks, he'll stay in El Paso to "brush up on my tequila drinking and the mambo (a dance)," King told a reporter.

Judge Jesus Barbara Cornejo called a special session of his Juarez court on All Saints day to grant the divorce. The grounds were incompatibility.

King said he will leave late in November for Cairo and "we'll get married as soon as I get there."

"I guess you could say champagne is my regular drink, but I'll be on tequila until Sunday."

"When I get there I'm going to drown Egypt in Champagne. You won't be able to tell Cairo from the Nile except that the Nile will be filled with water," he added.

Asked about a Moslem ban on drinking, Abdullah said: "Sure, Moslems have rules against it, but I'm what you might call a modern Moslem."

Sentenced to 35 Years for Raping Bride

FAIRFAX, Va., (AP)—James R. Polk, 20, was sentenced here yesterday to 35 years in prison for the rape of a 19-year-old newlywed who was kidnapped from her husband's side in bed.

Polk pleaded guilty a month ago. He is an Arlington, Va., automobile mechanic. His companion on the night of the attack was William Robert Payne, 20, of Bethesda, Md. Payne has pleaded guilty, and awaits sentencing.

On the night of June 26 Mrs. Nancy Ann Hotchkiss—bride of a young naval officer—stumbled to the porch of a policeman's home. She said two men took her at gunpoint from her first floor apartment in Arlington, near Fairfax, and raped her five times before letting her out of their car. After Polk and Payne were arrested, she said they were her abductors.

whole world."

A pageant, "Cornerstones of Freedom," gave scathing depictions of national Democratic leaders in versions of their most criticized public actions.

Goes Fishing

President Truman was shown announcing in a news conference that he had committed U. S. troops in Korea, then abruptly cutting off questions to go fishing. Truman was shown dangling a red herring from the end of his fish line and was told by an aide in uniform that, even if he didn't catch anything, "I have plenty of fish home in my deep freeze."

The late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was shown telling Premier Josef Stalin of Russia that "these agreements are strictly between ourselves. They'll be labelled top secret."

Taft told his audience that the Republican party alone "can promise a return to honesty and thrift and sound finance. We offer the people a through re-examination of every government project which has been undertaken." He continued:

Should Study Cost

"We offer a careful study of the whole military situation to see whether the total expense has gone beyond the economic capacity of this country and whether it is actually necessary to meet the Russian threat."

"After all," Senator Taft said, "it was only March, 1950, when Gen. Bradley testified that 15 billion dollars would be sufficient to assure the security of the American people. He said that the joint chiefs of staff never had gone along with the big figure of 20 billion dollars a year and that he ought to be dismissed if he recommended 30 billions."

NEWBURGH, N. Y., (AP)—If Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) gets the Republican presidential nomination, says ex-Congressman Hamilton Fish, Gen. Douglas MacArthur "will stump for him at every whistle stop."

And, Fish further predicts, Taft "will carry a majority of both northern and southern states" in the 1952 election.

The former Republican congressman, in an address here last night, said MacArthur was not interested "for himself" but "wants to oust the so-called Democratic Socialists from office."

Speaking of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Fish said it would be the "greatest disservice to this country" to take him away from his defense post in Europe. Eisenhower has been mentioned as a possible GOP candidate.

MacArthur could not be reached for comment.

Massachusetts Guards Border to Halt Flow of Cigarets, Liquor

BOSTON — (AP)— The Massachusetts border tax battle widened today as State Tax Commissioner Henry F. Long threatened to seize cars found coming into the Bay State with untaxed liquor and cigarettes.

Long also disclosed that his agents would start peering over the income tax returns of residents spotted taking smokes and drinks across borders of four states into Massachusetts.

The commissioner said he felt free to confiscate the cars of tax dodgers, despite a test case Friday when a car was ordered returned to its owner.

"We'll seize the cars," he said, "and if there aren't enough garages to hold them in Massachusetts there are plenty of parking lots."

"Our business is to get revenue," he added, "and any man who can drive an expensive car into another state to buy cigarettes and liquor ought to be paying a pretty good income tax."

Long's ire stems from the traffic of Bay Staters into neighboring states to stock up on liquor and smokes at lower prices. The border jumpers save 50 cents on a carton and about a dollar on a bottle, while Massachusetts loses tax revenue.

To press his "Battle of the Bottle," Long has assigned six state policemen to help the force of state tax agents now patrolling the borders.

It was cold. According to the Princeton high school thermometer it was 18 degrees. We checked it before leaving and it was up to 22. Maybe all those running players...

But the temperature did have something to do with the game... At half time one of the official's whistles had frozen and he was shaking it trying to get it to work... The coffee stand brought 35 gallons of the black stuff and almost ran out by the end of the game... During the freshman-sophomore tilt the scoreboard man closed up business in the middle of the second quarter and kept his hands warm until the big game got under way.

Several of the Dixon players wore gloves while playing. We even borrowed a pair... The press box, which is warm and isn't too crowded on warm nights, was overloaded—but with no one from the press. Radio 'priorities' and the loud speaker people took up most of the room. Each was loaded down with 'spotlers'... And meanwhile members of the press watched from the sidelines. Some tried a second story window in the school right off the field.

After the freshman-sophomores won their 30-0 halftime game they carried Coach Lloyd Swan off the field on their shoulders. The dressing room was filled with cheers and laughter. A little congratulatory right here wouldn't be out of place either. The only injury of the two games was in that frosh-soph win. Lineman Jim Hult, Princeton, brother of the varsity fullback, received a right knee injury, but was getting around in the dressing room.

The half-time show was put on by the German band of Dixon high school. Salutes to both schools, some fancy stepping and some typical beer garden playing made up the program. The audience, however, was small. Most of the spectators had adjourned to the high school where steam heat was being given away.

It was in this half-time rest that we noticed, after previously being unable to find it, where Princeton high school hides its telephone. It's inside a locker on the second floor.

About the game: The Tiger 28 first downs should make some sort of record. But, with a net yardage of 467 yards, who shouldn't get so many first downs?... Princeton's backs were literally exploding through the Dixon line. Holes were being opened wide, and easily, by the Tiger line. It was no wonder the average for the ball carriers was so high.

Quotes. Dixon fan, "Why did so many of the Princeton passes connect and so many Dixon passes miss? Mittens?"... Coach Sam Owens, "It's the first time we've been shut out this year; too bad it had to be this bunch. But, we had enough opportunities to score. We were down there enough."... Polo Coach Dick Fick, commenting on Rockton star John McDonald, "I'd like to have a boy like that on my team."... Former Hall star Bob Lewis before the game, "I think Princeton's going to upset 'em. Say 21-6."

We won't say we were surprised, but, if you'd like some sort of quote: "It was cold."

Wave of Upsets Knocks Four From State's Unbeaten Ranks

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. —(AP)—A wave of upsets knocked West Frankfort, Belleville, Knoxville and Polo from the undefeated, untied class in downstate Illinois prep football games last night.

A hefty Harrisburg club nipped West Frankfort 13-12 with a two-touchdown fourth quarter rally. Collinsville took Belleville's measure 12-6, Geneseo spilled Knoxville 19-7 and Hononegah of Rockton dumped Polo 27-19.

West Frankfort's Redbirds surrendered the last perfect record in the Southern area, although Harrisburg's state is marred only by a tie. Harrisburg now paces the South Seven conference.

The Redbirds took a 6-0 halftime lead on Joe Yuskos's 40-yard scoring pass to Dean Renn, and counted again at the start of the final period on a two yard plunge by Jerry Hart.

Takes to Air. Then, Harrisburg took to the air on a long march capped by Dick Griffith's four yard touchdown plunge, followed by Ed Dalton's conversion. A blocked West Frankfort punt set up the second Harrisburg touchdown with less than 15 minutes remaining.

Ken Ritz streaked 62 and 70 yards for the two payoff thrusts that enabled Collinsville to surprise Belleville. His second scoring effort broke a 6-6 deadlock in the last two minutes of play.

With Belleville sidetracked, St. Louis stepped out as a star cut favorite in the Southern conference race with a 7-13 decision over Alton.

Geneseo Wins. Geneseo pretty well bottled up halfback Bill Roe, downstate individual scoring leader, in its conquest of Knoxville. Roe collected 11 of Knoxville's seven points to set his eight game tally to 136.

Rockton's triumph snapped a 13-game triumph string started by Polo in 1949.

In an Eastern Illinois leagueature, Robinson spun Paris from a 10-0 lead, 35-7, and revived hopes for a ninth consecutive championship, although Newton is out in front.

Kaley Leads Robinson. Don Kaley, a stubby 125-pounder, bagged three Robinson touchdowns, one on a 38-yard third quarter sprint.

In some other important contests, Champaign licked Urbana 20-0, Unity of Tolono walloped Pont 53-14, Gibson City trimmed Paxton 19-0, Rock Island nipped Moline 21-7, Peoria Wood-ruffed Kewanee 19-12 and Jet blanked Freeport 32-0.

Fullback Dick Ohls sparked Champaign's win from Urbana, which kept Champaign's Big 12 up unsullied and put the first tie on Urbana's conference record.

Ohls Sparks Champaign. Piling off consistent gains, Ohls sparked Champaign's win from Urbana, which kept Champaign's Big 12 up unsullied and put the first tie on Urbana's conference record.

Hired Hand—The Colorado State Industrial Commission decided that, in effect, Ernest E. Nemeth was hired by the University of Denver to play football, so was entitled to disability pay from its insurance company. Nemeth, a guard, suffered an injury in Spring practice of 1950, underwent an operation, and his back is still in a brace.

Princeton Trounces Dixon, 27-0

Tough Tigers Halt Dukes 4 Times at Goal

Contreras Leads Ground Gainers; Hult Paces Tigers

PRINCETON — Halloween came two days late for Dixon's football team.

At least it seemed that way as the Dukes saw ghosts in the backfield and goblins on the three yard line here Friday night while falling victim to Princeton's Tigers, 27-0. The ghosts, of course, were Tiger backs Mel Hult, Tad Ryan and Ray Marmaro. And the goblins were the seven gentlemen that formed the Princeton line. It was the line which played the major role in blanketing the Dixon club for the first time this year.

It was the final game of the season for both teams.

Heroes All Tigers

The heroes, for the most part, were Tigers. Their blocking was better, tackling harder, and passes sharper. Perhaps the closest to being the top man of the game was Princeton's powerful fullback and defensive end, Mel Hult.

For Dixon, Gil Contreras was the leading ground gainer. He picked up 160 yards in 26 tries—and with few holes and little blocking. Defensively, at times, the Dukes were up to the situation. Tom Murray, Dick Crawford, and Dick Brunett were the main reason for halting the one Tiger drive that didn't reach pay dirt.

The game, which was played before an estimated 250 fans in below freezing temperatures, was spotted by fumbles and erratic passes by cold handed quarterbacks.

Marmaro Scores First

The Tigers, who scored in every quarter, pushed over their first tally midway into the first. Marmaro accounted for the score and Bill Diller missed the point.

Late in the first quarter Dixon found out how tough the Tiger line was going to be when, after a long run by Contreras to the Princeton four, the Dukes couldn't push it over. In three plays they found themselves back on the seven. A pass from Al Newcomer to Murphy connected but Murphy caught the ball outside the end zone and Princeton took over.

In the second quarter Hult set up another Princeton score, after Dick Dant's 81 yard sprint for a touchdown had been called back. Hult spearheaded a drive which saw him carry 25 yards to the foot stripe and then push it over. The Tigers got this extra point on a reverse by quarterback Russ Beaber and led 13-0.

Dixon Drive Falls

Dixon again came back and, with Contreras doing the major share of the ball handling, a first down on the Tiger 118. In two plays, however, they were forced to pass and Marmaro intercepted. Coming out for the second half, on the short end of the 13-0 score, Dixon still had hopes—but not for long.

On the first play from scrimmage Tad Ryan pegged a pass to Diller in the flat and the Tiger end scrambled 68 yards for the score. Diller kicked the point, and Princeton led 20-0.

Another Fizzle

Late in the quarter Dixon started another drive. Phil Kernan carried 27 yards to the Dixon 47 to start things. Contreras then hit right tackle and raced to the Princeton 27. Again Contreras, this time with four men having a shot at him and all slipping off, carried to the 13 for a first down. Then came the goblins return. Crawford got to the seven through the center. Contreras reached the five, but a pass into the end zone was wide. On fourth down Contreras went to his right to almost the three, where he was a foot short of a first down and Princeton took over.

In Trouble Again

A last minute pass put the Dixon squad right back in trouble, when Diller grabbed a Duke toss on the 20. In four plays Princeton had scored on a Ryan end run from the four. Beaber's pass to Ryan for the point was good making the final score 27-0.

Frosh-Sophs In 38-0 Win At Princeton

PRINCETON — The star-studded Dixon freshman-sophomore football team finished its undefeated season here Friday night by rolling over the Princeton freshman-sophomore club, 38-0.

The game, which saw Dixon build a 32-0 halftime lead, was a set stage for husky Pete Schuler, Dixon halfback, who played the starring role with three first half TD's.

Schuler was aided by Merle Pittman, a two-time scorer, Bob Ashford, and Kay Draper.

Dixon, after building up the first half lead, used a string of substitutes throughout the second half. For that reason only the score was as low as it was. The final half tally by Dixon came in the fourth period when Coach Lloyd Swan sent his first stringers.

Take 13-0 Lead

After Dixon's first score by Schuler, Ashford kicked the extra point to give the visiting crew a 7-0 lead. A drive late in the same period, again climaxed by a dash by Schuler, gave Dixon a 13-0 first quarter advantage. Ashford's kick was short.

Early in the second period Draper broke away over right tackle for a 61 yard jaunt and the third score. Again the point was missed.

Still in the same frame Schuler came back and, on a seven yard plunge, scored the fourth Dixon touchdown. Goral made the extra point and Dixon led, 26-0.

With only a few minutes left in the first half Pittman intercepted a Tiger pass on the Princeton 10 and went over to give Dixon a 32-0 lead at half time.

Fall to Score

Dixon could only get down as far as the 12-yard line in the third quarter in its only drive.

When the first string returned to action, things picked up. Pittman set up the scoring opportunity with a run to the Princeton 11. A pass to Tom Hufford carried the ball to the two and from there Ashford bulled over. The extra point was missed. Final score: Dixon 38, Princeton 0.

Amboy Rally to Beat Rochelle Highlight of Area's Contests

ROCHELLE—Scoring 19 points in the final two quarters, Amboy high school's football team overcame a 13 point first half margin to down Rochelle, 19-13, here Friday night.

Rochelle, after not gaining Amboy in the first half and piling up a 13-0 lead, was unable to cope with the Clippers last half surge. Amboy's first score in the third period came after Urban Becker grabbed a Rochelle fumble and carried for 15 more yards. The drive that followed ended with Jim Montavon scoring from the three.

Ronnie Belcher scored the second touchdown for the Clippers on an 8 yard end run, but the point was missed and Coach Nick Miles' crew was still behind, 13-12.

In the fourth period it was Montavon again. This time for 60 yards on a quick opener. This time the point was made and Amboy went ahead, 19-13, for the final scoring.

This program includes musical numbers on the following instruments, implements and gadgets, Spanish guitar, ukelele, pitch fork, paint buckets, flexatone saw, inner tube, glasses, cowbells, door bells, whistles, and maracas (a rare stringed keyboard instrument, forerunner of the modern grand

Newspaper Feature Syndicates Face U. S. Anti-Trust Action

CHICAGO —(AP)—The Chicago Tribune said today that lawyers of the anti-trust division of the Department of Justice have obtained subpoenas and had them served upon six newspaper feature syndicates in New York.

The subpoenas demand production before a grand jury of all records relating to the sale or lease of comic strips, columns or other features marketed by syndicates, the paper said.

Named in the orders are Bell Syndicate, Inc.; United Feature Syndicate; McNaught Syndicate, Inc.; NEA Service, Inc.; King Features Syndicate; and Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate.

The Tribune said federal attorneys have refused to comment on the investigation beyond acknowledging that the subpoenas have been issued.

The Tribune said the orders to produce records are so detailed and comprehensive that lawyers described them as "dragnet subpoenas."

Itemizing of the demanded records requires two pages of single spaced typing, the paper said. The subpoena particularly emphasizes that records relating to exclusive publication territories must be included.

The Tribune said it has been the practice for many years among syndicates to restrict the sale of a feature—a comic strip for example—to only one newspaper in a competitive area.

"The value of a syndicated feature to a newspaper often is greatly enhanced by the fact that it appears only in that newspaper among those published in a competitive area," the Tribune said.

Captain Bligh was set adrift by the Pitcairn Island mutineers in 1789.
